

The City of Owen Sound is seeking a Full Time Deputy Chief Building Official

The City of Owen Sound is seeking an experienced professional to assume the responsibilities of Deputy Chief Building Official. Owen Sound is a diverse and culturally rich community located on the southern shores of Georgian Bay, approximately 2 hours north of Toronto, and on the doorstep of the Bruce Peninsula. Owen Sound is the largest urban community in Grey and Bruce counties characterized by a harbour and bay, two winding rivers, tree-lined streets, an extensive parks system, and tree-covered hillsides and ravines. The City of Owen Sound municipal offices are located in the historic downtown of a regional centre minutes from the harbour, restaurants and trails. Enjoy the Tom Thomson Art Gallery, theatres, museums, festivals, hiking, biking, skiing and snowshoeing, boating and fishing minutes from your office.

The Deputy Chief Building Official (DCBO) is responsible to assist the Chief Building Official (CBO) in all aspects of the City's Building Division including plans examination, building and plumbing inspections, permit issuance in compliance with the Ontario Building Code, the City of Owen Sound Building Bylaw and other applicable legislation. This position provides support and back up to the CBO.

The ideal candidate will have a college diploma in Civil Engineering or Architectural Technology or similar discipline and three to five years of experience, preferably in a municipal environment. A current Building Code Identification Number (BCIN) with the Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing, registered in good standing with the Ontario Building Officials Association and certification as a Certified Building Code Official or Building Code Qualified are required. Ministry qualifications including House, Small, Large and Complex Buildings, Building Services, Building Structural and Plumbing are required.
